DENVER & RIO GRANDE RAILROADS AND SHOPS TO BE ABSORBED

Orders are expected at any time from the regional director of railroads providing for the consolidation of the local plant of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad with the Ogden Union Railway and Depot Co. Although official statements have not been made, local railroad men say the order is coming.

The plan would provide for the handling of the freight and passenger business of the Denver and Rio Grande by the other local railroads. If the new plan is adopted, the locomotives and cars of the D. & R. G. would be cared for by the Southern Pacific shops, which would mean the abolition of the D. & R. G. shops and yards. Such an arrangement will mean the same output with less expenditure and less labor. The orders have been expected for several months according to local railroaders.

STEAM ENGINEER IS WANTED AT THE POSTOFFICE

The United States civil service commission announces that a third class steam engineer, non-educational, examination will be held on September 20, for the purpose of filling a vacancy in the position of third class steam engineer in the custodian service at Ogden. COLORED WAITER HAS $50 FINE PLACED AGAINST HIM

D. P. Randolph, colored, charged with being drunk on a car at the union depot, was sentenced to a term of 50 days in jail or to a fine of $50, by acting Judge Caleb Marriott in municipal court this morning.

The case was called to other attention of the police by railroad officials who resolved to stop the practice of using dining cars as bars.

The defendant asked the judge for "the benefit of the doubt," and wanted a suspended sentence. But the judge could not find even a trace of doubt.

Ed Miller and R. E. Low, who were arrested last evening in a Chinese restaurant on Grant avenue, were given a 30-day suspended sentence for being drunk. Both men pleaded guilty but explained to the court that they were on the way to Wyoming to accept positions as mechanics. On condition that they leave immediately the sentence was suspended.

WOMEN MAY BE USED ON STREET CARS OF OGDEN

Because of shortage of manpower, the street car company is compelled to begin curtailments and conserve men. The street car company, like many other corporations, gives up some of its employees almost daily to the army. In the contingent that left Ogden last night were four of the company's employees.

Tomorrow morning the street car company will take off one of the Twenty-seventh street cars and will only operate one car between Jefferson and Twenty-fifth street and the end of the line on Twenty-seventh street. This schedule will be operated until 8:40 p. m. when the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-third street cars will operate between the two terminals on the bench.

The prediction of a local man about a year ago, that women would be used on the street cars of Ogden within a couple years, seems to be coming true, an official of the road remarked today.

COUNTY SCHOOLS HAVE 81 TEACHERS

The opening of the county schools this fall will mean the employing of 81 teachers, in the 21 schools throughout Weber county.

The county school superintendent's report shows Weber county to be the only district in the state wherein all the rural schools employ more than one instructor and have more than one room.

Out of the 21 schools, two provide for two years of high school work and three others are making application for the facilities to teach this work this year. Huntsville and Hooper are now maintaining the high school work.

Full information regarding the part of the county high schools in the military plan being adopted for high schools will be announced later.

BABY FARLEY CALLED SUDDENLY TO THE GREAT BEYOND

With the death of little Jack David Farley, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Farley of this city, a cheerful little one passes out of the Farley household.

The little boy was given a plum to eat while at the picture show Monday afternoon; about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning he became very ill and a physician was called, who pronounced his ailment to be ptomaine poisoning. The doctor with a trained nurse and the mother did everything within human power to save the little one, but he passed away Tuesday night at 12:30 o'clock.

Funeral services were held in the Fifth ward meeting house at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Everett Neuteboom, E. J. Larkin, C. J. Brown offered tender words of consolation to the bereaved family and musical numbers were feelingly rendered. Helen Swenson and Rebecca Ririe sang "Jesus Want Me for a Sunbeam." Mrs. Mary Farley sang "Abide with Me" and "That Beautiful Story of Old." Mrs. Joseph Snyder sang "Beautiful Isle."

The flower girl and pallbearers were friends of little Jack. He was buried in the city cemetery beside the grandfather, David K. Farley. The following lines were offered in memoriam: "Little darling you have left us, 'There will be a vacant chair, We will meet you up in Heaven; There will be no parting there."

"The city near which we are located is quite large and is surely a nice place, but there is a whole lot of difference between our American cities and the French. They say this is the third largest city in France."

"With love, "JIM."

PLANNING FOR THE NEXT LIBERTY LOAN

(Special to The Standard.)

POCATELLO, Ida., Aug. 29.—The conference of officers and members of the state council of defense and members of the county councils of defense in southern Idaho, here yesterday, was a big success. The principal business and discussion was the outlining of a campaign for the fourth Liberty loan which begins September 25. Dr. E. A. Bryan, chairman, and Joseph Hanson, secretary, of the Idaho State Council of Defense, came down from Boise and took an active part in the conference. Twelve southern Idaho counties were represented out of eighteen invited to participate. The boards of county commissioners of all the counties in the state will be asked, through the state and county councils, to furnish clerical help in conducting the fourth Liberty loan campaign. Field Manager J. D. Zuehl, of the Oregon Liberty loan organization, was present, and gave a talk in which he explained his state's method of launching a campaign. He declared that Oregon will be over the top by 9 o'clock on the opening day of the campaign.

AUTOS IN COLLISION ON SAND RIDGE

An automobile collision which caused considerable damage to two seven-passenger touring cars, occurred at 9 o'clock last evening on the state road about a mile this side of Sunset. The accident occurred when a large Chalmers Six driven by F. M. Goswick attempted to turn in the left of a Buick Six. The north bound car was a Studebaker driven by Jas. H. Riley, cashier of the Pine-grove National Bank.

Both cars were too badly damaged to operate after the wreck. Mr. Goswick, who was accompanied by Ed Henninger and W. H. Vaughn, was going to Layton to deliver the car which he had sold to a resident there. As he approached the curve near Sunset, the Buick, which was also south bound, stopped, and Goswick was compelled to turn to the left to avoid hitting the Buick. As he turned out he crashed into the Studebaker driven by Mr. Riley. The driver of the Buick is said to have stopped only long enough to find that the other two cars had hit.

The occupants of both cars were shaken considerably but were not seriously injured.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS OF CITY READY FOR OCCUPANCY

The Quincy school, which is being repaired to the extent of $8000, will be ready by the opening of school, September 9. Lighting and heating systems are being installed. A new stair way is also being constructed for the purpose of obtaining a more rapid exit system in case of emergency.

MEXICANS ENTER U. S. CONSULATE

Force Consul to Leave and Wound Clerk—Matter Under Investigation.

YAQUIS NEAR NOGALES

Citizens of Nogales Are Making Preparations for Any Emergency.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Major-General Holbrook, commanding along the Mexican border, reported to the war department today that quiet had been restored and the border reopened, the situation at Nogales having been adjusted to the satisfaction of the military authorities.

Mexican Consul Zertuchi a Nogales also advised Ambassador Bonillas that difficulties had been satisfactorily settled. It was stated at the embassy that Governor Calles sent to the border to stop the trouble "at all costs" is a firm friend of the United States and has crushed all activities of German propagandists in Sonora.

State department dispatches from Nogales late today, said the conference between General Cabel and Governor Calles had been entirely satisfactory. Governor Calles giving his word there would be no further trouble. Which there was further sniping from the Mexican side, the governor promptly put Nogales, Sonora, under martial law.

Officials are satisfied that through action of the American and Mexican commanders border troubles will be suppressed without further difficulties.

General March said he had received no report of a warning given by Brigadier-General Cabel to Governor Calles of Sonora that American troops would cross the border if another shot came from the Mexican side. He doubted that such a warning had been sent, saying American army officers do not make threats.

The American list of dead was increased to four early today when Lieut. Luke W. Loftus, wounded in action during Tuesday's skirmish, died in the base hospital. His home was given as Laredo, Tex.

Drunken Civilians Blamed.

NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 29.—Drunken civilians on the Mexican side of the border were held responsible today for the shooting which occurred late last night which resulted in the wounding slightly of an American soldier. Brigadier-General de Rosy Cabel announced today that everything was quiet throughout the night and no further trouble was anticipated. Reinforcements have arrived here and are going into camp near the border. Rumors that Mexican federal reinforcements were arriving in Nogales, Sonora, and entrenching, were denied here today.

NOGALES, Sonora, Aug. 29.—During the skirmish Tuesday afternoon between American soldiers and Mexicans, armed Mexicans entered the American consulate here, forced Vice Consul McGuire and Consular Clerk E. Tooley to leave the consulate at the points of their guns, and Tooley was shot and wounded, according to an announcement made by American Consul E. M. Lawton, in Nogales, Sonora, here today. An investigation is now in progress, he said.

A report was received here today that a command of Yaqui Indians was camped one mile south of Nogales, Sonora, and were commanded by General Arnulfo Gomez. This has not yet been fully confirmed. It was also announced today that while the Mexican soldiers manned the old, abandoned trenches used during the revolutions at the time of the short stay of Nogales to repel any possible attack which Juan G. Cabral, who revolted some time ago and has a small band of followers, should make in an effort to take advantage of the situation. He has not been heard from for some time.

Citizens of Nogales, Ariz., today were making preparations for any emergency. Automobiles were registered and assigned for taking women and children out of town should any further trouble develop. Citizens are arming themselves and preparing to protect their families in the event of any further firing. A home guard organization has also been formed among civilians here with the permission of the military authorities.

NAMED BY WILSON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Albert Rathbone of New York was nominated today by President Wilson to be assistant secretary of the treasury to succeed Oscar T. Crosby who is representing the treasury in France.

HARVEY M. MURDOCK, MISSING IN ACTION, WAS A SON OF MRS. EMMA C. HALEY OF OGDEN

Harvey M. Murdock, 24 years of age, son of Mrs. Emma C. Haley, 2820 River avenue, is reported as missing in action. A message to that effect was received by his mother today. He was a member of the machine gun company of the Thirtieth Infantry, A. E. F. The telegram says that he was missing in action between July 15 and 28.

The young man enlisted in the army four years ago and went to China. He was stationed at various points in China for three years when he returned to the United States with his regiment which was among the first to go to France. He was a fine looking soldier, 6 feet tall. He was born in Altoona, Pa.

Another brother, Levi P. Murdock, recently landed in France with battery B of the 145th Field artillery.

A son, Haley, enlisted in the army at Niles, Ohio, making the third of the family to join the colors.

The last letter Mrs. Haley received from Harvey was written June 28, from a front line trench. In part it said:

"Things at times are quiet, but German shells have been keeping us hugging the ground pretty close. It sure makes a fellow think of what he has done when the big ones bust close around. Just as soon as we hear a whistling sound coming through the air, looking around, all you can see is fellows' feet sticking out of their dugouts. We sit around and talk about what has happened in action. It sure is comical, the movements we go through to find the dugouts."

"I am sure hoping that the war will soon be over and I can come back again. I received a letter from Levi and he said he wished he was over here in France because everything was dull around where he was. I told him if he would come over here that he would find that things were not so terribly quiet."

The remainder of the young man's letter was of members of the family at home and a few little questions regarding relatives.

ALLIED FORCES FORGING AHEAD

Further German Retreatments East of Roze and Arras Expected by Allies.

BAPAUME HOLDS OUT

British Threatening Quantum Support Line and Mangin Forces Advancing.

(By the Associated Press.)

Having forced the Germans to retreat between the Somme and the Oise, allied forces are pressing the advance gained and continue their advance eastward.

Further enemy retreatments behind Roze and Arras are not unexpected in allied capitals.

French troops, after an advance of nearly seven miles on a front of nineteen miles, are fighting for the crossings of the Canal du Nord, north of Noyon.

Immediately south of the Somme, British forces have moved east to within three miles of the Somme, south of where it bends at Peronne and are driving the enemy back to the river crossings at Peronne and Breille.

In Picardy the British attack continues and has resulted in an advance of one mile on a front of five miles in the region of Arras and northward. Bapaume still holds out, but the British are pushing well east of that point on the war.

Southwest of Arras, where the British have crossed the Hindenburg line, they are now east of Beloy Notre Dame about three miles east of Monchy-Premet and threatening seriously the Queant-Drocourt salient; line. North of the Scarpe, German counterattacks seemingly have held up the advance astride the Arras-Douai high-road.

While the continued retirement of the enemy from the Roze-Chaulnes line adds to the difficulties of the German troops north of the Somme, French and American troops under General Mangin have struck at the vital salient north of Soissons. An advance of nearly one mile has been made in the Chemigny region.

The enemy, however, did not succeed in crossing the Vesle which evidently was his intention. Berlin says that 250 Americans were made prisoners here and at Bazoches, several miles to the west. At Bazoches the Americans gained a strong foothold in the village in stubborn fighting.

Viewed from the maps, the German withdrawal before French pressure in the Neale region, coupled with allied activities elsewhere on the great battle front, which has become the greatest in more secure position than the one previously occupied. The fact that south of Peronne the Germans went back to the Canal du Nord and the Somme may indicate that they will retire to the same canal north of Peronne where it runs toward Cambrai.

Canal Can Be Outflanked.

British pressure on the north and the French position along the Oise do not make the Canal du Nord a very strong line because it can be outflanked from the north and from the south. The French at the juncture of the Oise and Ailette could cut in behind it and, at least, are so placed as to impose and seriously harass any hurried withdrawal from the region about riam and Noyon.

German resistance is reported to have increased as the British and French have moved eastward south of the Somme. This may indicate the enemy intends to make another temporary stand at the Somme and the Canal du Nord. Meanwhile, the British southwest of the Scarpe are eating into the old German defenses with success.

The fate of the Hindenburg line depends upon the situation here and interesting developments may be expected.

A German newspaper reports that the Czechoslovak, Polish and southern inhabitants of Austria-Hungary are mobilizing probably in preparation for a concerted revolutionary movement. Signs in Bohemia, it is said, indicate that some action may be taken soon.

ARMED CLASH IS BARELY AVERTED

Nicaragua and Honduras Withdraw Troops Called Out in Boundary Dispute.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Nicaragua and Honduras have averted their threatened armed clash over a long standing boundary dispute by agreeing, at the request of the United States, to withdraw all troops from their borders and submit the controversy to the United States through their ministers in Washington.

Presidents of the two Central American republics a week ago accepted an invitation from the government here to adopt this solution of their differences.

A decision of the king of Spain, who had been asked to arbitrate, failed to satisfy Nicaragua and several weeks ago Nicaraguan troops were sent to the border to enforce claims to territory involved.

Recent dispatches from Salvador telling of renewed prospects of trouble are believed to have been manufactured out of old information. State department officials are confident that neither side has violated the agreement with withdrawal of troops.

It is understood here discovery of gold along one of the border rivers is chiefly responsible for the controversy.

Purchasing Power of Dollar Shrunk to Fifty-four Cents

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Comparison of food prices prevailing now with those of five years ago, shows that the purchasing power of a dollar bill has shrunk to 54 cents in Washington and Baltimore; 59 cents in New York and Chicago and 63 cents in San Francisco, according to a statement today by the department of labor.

Food which could be bought for $1 in July, 1912, now costs $1.85 in Washington; $1.84 in Baltimore; $1.77 in Philadelphia; $1.68 in New York; $1.69 in Chicago, and $1.58 in San Francisco. In the one year period from July 1, 1917 to July 1, 1918, food prices advanced 22 per cent in San Francisco; 20 per cent in Washington and Philadelphia; 20 per cent in Baltimore; 17 per cent in New York and 11 per cent in Chicago.

Rhine Cities Plan to Deal With Air Raids

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 29.—Cities and municipalities of the Rhine district have formed a permanent committee to deal with the increasing menace of Allied air raids, says the Cologne Gazette. The committee was formed at a meeting in Frankfurt Monday at which all the municipalities concerned and the officials connected with the air defense discussed the situation fully. They demanded prompt legislation giving the legal right of full compensation for full damage from aerial attacks.

Allies Liberate Fifty Villages.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—(Havas Agency.)—The number of German prisoners captured by the French in their advance west of Chaulnes-Noyon line has been comparatively small as the French have been obliged to move cautiously. The Germans left mines at various places and had scattered infernal machines and traps of various kinds. The war material taken, however, has been considerable.

In forty-eight hours the allied advance has liberated more than fifty villages.
